PRELUDE

PROCESSIONAL (please stand)

David E. Sherbino, Faculty

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven, To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Evermore his praises sing;

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour To our fathers in distress;
Praise him, still the same as ever, Slow to chide, and swift to bless;

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Glorious in his faithfulness.

Frail as summer's flow'r we flourish; Blows the wind and it is gone;
But, while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise the high eternal one.

Angels in the height, adore him; Ye behold him face to face;
Saints triumphant, bow before him; Gathered in from ev'ry race;

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise with us the God of grace.

HYMN FOR THE NEW MILLENNIUM

Through the darkness of the ages,
Through the sorrow of the days,
Strength of weary generations,
Lifting hearts in hope and praise.
Light in darkness, joy in sorrow,
Presence to allay all fears,
Jesus, you have kept your promise,
Faithful through two thousand years.

Bounty of two thousand harvests,
Beauty of two thousand springs:
He who framed the times and seasons,
Has vouchsafed us greater things.
Word of God, who spoke creation,
Speaks forgiveness, speaks to save,
Gathers still his ransomed people,
In the life he freely gave.

Countless flowers have bloomed and withered,
Countless noons are sealed in night,
Shattered thrones and fallen empires,
Realms and riches lost from sight.
Christ, your kingdom still increases,
As the centuries unfold.
Grain that fell to earth and perished,
Has brought forth ten thousand fold.

Master, we shall sing your praises,
Man of sorrows, God of power,
For the measured march of seasons
Shall at last bring in the hour.
When, as lightning leaps the heavens,
You return to lead us home,
You have promised, "I am coming."
Swiftly, our Lord Jesus, come.

RECESSIONAL (please stand)

Lead On, O King Eternal

Lead on, O King Eternal. The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home:
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing, Or roll of stirring drums;
With deeds of love and mercy The heav'nly Kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal. We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us; We journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might.

Distinguished Alumni 2000

Les McFarlane, Tyndale College (BRE), 1966

Les McFarlane was born and raised in a Christian home in Northern Ireland and came to Canada when he was 12. After graduating from Tyndale College, he has enjoyed a successful business career, holding senior management positions in large corporations, such as Shell and Massey-Ferguson. He was the founder and president of Triathlon Computer Leasing (later MFP Financial Services). Les has distinguished himself as a person with vision and competence to create and lead in business, integrated by his faith in Christ and his love to see people come to personal faith. During his business career, Les has also served as Sunday school teacher, youth leader and church board member. Currently, he is Director of I.T. Xchange, and serves on the board of directors of World Vision Canada and the foundation board of Tyndale College & Seminary. He is married to Lynette, and they have three sons and four grandchildren.

Samuel S. Chan, DMin; Tyndale Seminary (MDiv), 1982

Sam Chan currently serves as the Senior Pastor of Richmond Hill Chinese Community Church, a tri-lingual, seeker-sensitive and life-commitment ethnic church with five adult worship services every Sunday. He has distinguished himself over the years through his pastoral work in the Association of Chinese Evangelical Ministries (ACEM) churches, pioneering the English Ministry and promoting healthy, balanced growth in evangelism, missions, life development, social concerns, and inter-church relationships. Sam actively participates and promotes world missions through his association with the Chinese Coordination Centre of World Evangelism, Great Commission Centre International (Canada), and the Breakthrough Overseas Missions. He is an Adjunct Professor of the Chinese Ministry Program at Tyndale Seminary. He and his wife Yvonne are the parents of three children.

Honourary Doctorate

Nell C. Maxwell, Founder and President, Women Alive

Nell Maxwell is founder and president of Women Alive, an interdenominational Christian conference ministry active across Canada. Women Alive would not have blossomed in Canada without Nell Maxwell. Noting a need, Nell met that need for fellowship, spiritual vitality and creative newness by bringing women together. Today there is a continuing operation of ministry, bringing women into faith, new understanding of God's call, and a heightened sense of what God might do in their lives. We are blessed in Canada because of Nell's witness. Nell and her husband Ted have two daughters and six grandchildren.

Professors Emeriti 2000

Robert C. Duez, Professor of Theology, 1969-2000

Dr. Bob Duez began teaching at Tyndale College & Seminary in 1969. For 31 years his theological acumen and scholarship have impacted the lives of many students, who today are giving leadership and providing ministry across Canada and around the world. Along with teaching theology, he has served at various times as Academic Dean, Vice-President of Extension Education, and Coordinator of Independent Studies. Bob holds an MA from Wheaton Graduate School and a BD from Westminster Theological Seminary (both awarded 1964), and a PhD from the University of St. Michael's College (1985). Prior to coming to Tyndale, he pastored Chestnut Hill Baptist Church. Bob and his wife Shirley have three children and one grandchild.

Donald A. Leggett, Professor of Old Testament, 1964-2000

Dr. Don Leggett began teaching Old Testament studies at Tyndale College & Seminary in 1964. His love for the Old Testament, shown first at the College, then as a founding faculty member of the Seminary from its inception in 1976, has made a vital impact on generations of students. His scholarly interests have focused on the major prophets, the Psalms, Old Testament ethics, and preaching from the Old Testament. Throughout his teaching career, Don also has maintained an active pulpit ministry, especially as preaching pastor at Village Green Baptist Church in London. Don earned his doctorate from the Free University of Amsterdam, after studies at Westminster Theological Seminary, Reformed Episcopal Seminary, and Dickenson College in Pennsylvania. The author of two books and numerous scholarly articles, he and his wife Linda have five children and three grandchildren.

Glenn A. Wyper, Professor of Old Testament 1973-2000

Professor Glenn Wyper's educational history reminds one of a Dostoevsky novel: sprawling and diverse. First, he completed his undergraduate degree (with majors in History and English) from the University of British Columbia. He proceeded from Vancouver to California, and traded disciplines, focusing on the BD degree at Fuller Theological Seminary. Glenn commenced studies at the University of Southern California, but eventually traded the American dream for a more culturally-diverse existence in the Greater Toronto Area. After a number of years pastoring, Glenn joined the Tyndale community in 1973, teaching part time while working on his ThM at Wycliffe College. Along with teaching in the classroom, he administered the Registrar's office. In 1992 he relinquished the role of Registrar, and moved back into the classroom where he continued to minister in the same faithful and energetic manner that has marked his tenure at Tyndale College. Glenn and his wife Phyllis have three children and six grandchildren.
