

Tyndale Wesley Symposium 2015 Schedule

All sessions in Bayview Campus Auditorium unless otherwise indicated

10:00	Welcome and opening worship
10:20	AUDITORIUM: James T. Robertson, "For God, King, and Country: Methodists and Interpreting the War of 1812"	1F BOARDROOM: Sandra King, "The 1857 Hamilton, Ontario Revival: An exploration of the Layman's Revival and The Second Great Awakening."
11:00	Break
11:15	AUDITORIUM: Todd Webb, 'Too great to be forgiven': James Everett's clandestine war against Jabez Bunting and the global crisis in mid-19 th century Wesleyan Methodism."	1F BOARDROOM: Adam Kline, "Let Us Make Man in Our Image: The Divine Nature and the Narrative that is its Substance."
12:00	Lunch
1:00	KEYNOTE: Kevin Mannoia, "New Vocabulary for Holy Living in the 21 st Century"
2:00	Panel Discussion: Younger Leaders Respond Matthew McEwen, Lisa Outar, and Kevin Slous; moderated by James Pedlar
2:30	Break
2:45	Table Discussion
3:15	Plenary Discussion
3:50	Dismissal

PARTICIPANTS

Kevin W. Mannoia is Graduate and Faculty Chaplain at Asuza Pacific University and Chair of the Wesleyan Holiness Consortium. He formerly served as Dean of the School of Theology at Azusa Pacific, President of the National Association of Evangelicals, and as a Bishop in the Free Methodist Church.

James T. Robertson is a Baptist pastor who holds a PhD in history from McMaster Divinity College and teaches part-time at Tyndale Seminary. His forthcoming book on the churches and the War of 1812 will be published by McGill-Queen's University Press.

Sandra King is a researcher and writer working on a book about the 1857 Revival in Hamilton, to be published by McMaster Divinity College Press. She is active in the Charismatic movement.

Todd Webb is Assistant Professor of History at Laurentian University and author of Transatlantic Methodists: British Wesleyanism and the Formation of an Evangelical Culture in Nineteenth-Century Ontario and Quebec.

Adam Kline is Pastor of the Madoc Free Methodist & Wesleyan Church. He received his MDiv in 2014 from Wesley Seminary at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Matthew McEwen is Pastor of Holt Free Methodist Church, a Tyndale ThM graduate, and a former member of the Study Commission on Doctrine of the Free Methodist Church in Canada.

Lisa Outar is an ordained Nazarene minister who serves as Associate Pastor at Rosewood Church of the Nazarene in Scarborough.

Kevin Slous is Territorial Director of Discipleship in the Children and Youth Department of The Salvation Army in Canada and Bermuda.

James Pedlar is Assistant Professor of Wesley Studies and Theology at Tyndale Seminary.