A Year of Progress

The Alumni Association.

On Thursday, April 24, the Bible College Alumni Association held its fourth annual meeting in the college hall. About 150 members and their friends came to the reception at 6 o'clock and remained to the supper that followed. The tables and decorations looked very attractive and reflected great credit upon the committee of ladies who had spared no effort in their arrangement and preparation.

The President, Rev. W. F. Roadhouse, presided. The Roll Call of the 18 years showed a response from 14 years with 53 graduates present. A large number are upon the foreign field; some have gone to "be with Christ"; others are serving at home. The President's annual address was upon "The Law of Equality in Service," based upon the incident in David's life at the brook Besor.

The Secretary, Mr. H. L. Troyer, in his report showed 40 new members, and not a little had been accomplished during the year. Mr. H. Bower spoke for the student body, while Miss Maude Sweetman, Mr. L. E. Atkinson and Miss Alice M. Burr brought suggestions from the graduating classes of the day and the evening students.

The Association adopted "The Evangelical Christian" as its official organ, accepting the page placed at its disposal by the Editor, Rev. R. V. Bingham. The membership fee, henceforth, is $1 per year, which includes a year's subscription to the magazine. The life membership was raised to $10, beginning after three months, this fee to include one year's subscription.

An innovation was that of eliciting from students the source of their first knowledge of the College—upon railway trains, at Bible Conferences, from pastors, and so on. There was impressed upon those present the necessity of pressing the claims of the College upon earnest young men and women.

The evening's speaker was the Rev. T. G. R. Brownlow, of the 1897 class. His theme was "Loyalty to the Doctrines of the School," to the Bible, to prayer, to the Church, to soul-winning. It was an inspirational address, worthy of the occasion, and was heartily received. Our brother has been for years a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States; has been blessed in his work, and is now the successful pastor of the Grace M. E. Church in Ovid, Mich.

The following officers of the Association were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. T. G. R. Brownlow, Ovid.

Vice-President—Rev. C. J. Loney, Brantford, Mich.

2nd Vice-President—Miss Etta Cale, Toronto.

Secy.-Treas.—Mr. H. L. Troyer, Toronto.

Advisory Council—Principal Rev. Jno. McNicol, Rev. T. B. Hyde, Rev. W. F. Roadhouse, Messrs. Martin Love, Howard Breechin.

Representatives—Graduates of day classes, Miss Ethel Wilkins, Mr. H. Bower; of evening classes, Miss I. Rumsey, Mr. G. Honhold.

Graduating Exercises, 1913.

The Closing Exercises of the College were about all that the friends and students could desire. The 1913 Class of Graduates was the largest ever leaving in any year; the addresses were of a high order; the day and evening were beautiful; and the spiritual atmosphere made one feel it was "good to be there."

Rev. R. P. MacKay, D.D., Vice-President, presided during the evening. Principal McNicol spoke upon the year's work (see report in another column). The student speakers were Mr. Glen Wardell, on "The Call of the World;" Miss Sadie Byler, on "The Life That Lifts;" while Mr. Geo. A. Williams gave the valedictory address.

The graduates were then presented and received their diplomas. In addition to those upon the accompanying engraving were Misses A. M. Burr, R. M. Bullock, G. B. Evans, M. Leith and L. Workman from the evening classes. The post-graduates were Miss E. Lapp and Mr. H. Bower. Dr. W. H. Griffith-Thomas spoke earnestly in his address to the students, telling them amongst other things they would "never lift a soul one inch higher than they themselves had attained."

The closing address was a masterly one by the Rev. Jno. McNeill, of Cooke's Church. It breathed loyalty to the Word of God and to the highest ideals of the Christian life.

All of the exercises, we feel sure, will live long in the minds and hearts of those who thus spent their last evening as students and are now graduates of the Toronto Bible College.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL.

The following report is a summary of the work of the 19th session of the Toronto Bible Training School, now known as The Toronto Bible College.

1. Enrollment of Students.

The number of students in attendance was 86 in the Day Class and 215 in the Evening, a total of 301. This is not only the largest number we have ever enrolled in the regular classes, but it also indicates the greatest increase we have ever had in any one year. The following is a comparative statement of the registration for the past three years.

	1910-11.	1911-12.	1912-13.
Day Class.
Men	32	31	37
Women	44	50	49
	76	81	86
Evening Class.
Men	26	55	82
Women	101	101	133
	127	156	215

The Church connection of the students for the past session was as follows:—

Denomination	Day Class.	Evening Class.
Anglican	4	19
Baptist	30	68
Congregational	4	4
Methodist	16	56
Presbyterian	17	39
Mennonite	6	2
Christian Workers.....	3	4
Evangelical Assoc.	2	2
Brethren	2	5
Lutheran	1	1

Salvation Army	5
Reformed Episcopal.....	1
Unclassified	1	9
	86	215

In all, 12 denominations were represented in the total registration.

The attendance in the Day Class was interrupted in several instances during the winter through illness. In view of the fact that the Bible College provides no residence for the students, it would be advisable to make some special provision for the oversight of their general health and physical well-being while in attendance.

II. The Course of Instruction.

The complete course of instruction which has been maturing and developing for the past few years, was in full working operation for the first time this session. The course of study provided by the Bible College now stretches over three years. Students taking two years of this course are granted the Graduating Diploma. Those who take an additional year of study are given post-graduate standing. The Evening Class work remains as it has been since the beginning, being a partial course of three years.

During the past session 25 students have completed the two years' course in the Day Classes, the largest number receiving diplomas in any one year. Two students have taken an additional year of post-graduate study. Five students have completed three years' study in the Evening Class, entitling them to certificates.

The work done by the members of the faculty was as follows:

Prof. W. H. Griffith Thomas continued the valuable assistance he gave us last year, by a course of lectures once a week on the Book of Isaiah.

Rev. T. B. Hyde lectured twice a week on the Book of Acts.

Rev. F. S. Weston gave three lectures a week on Christian Doctrines.

Rev. Andrew Imrie gave two lectures a week on Practical Work during the first half of the session, and was then obliged to withdraw, as his church required his whole time.

After the New Year, the Rev. W. F. Roadhouse was added to the staff, through special provision made by a valued friend of the College, as will be explained in the report of the Secretary, and was put in charge of the whole Practical Department of our work. Mr. Roadhouse gave four lectures a week on English, on the Preparation of Sermons and Addresses, and on Methods of Practical Work. In addition to this, he accompanied the students at their weekly evangelistic meetings, giving personal counsel and supervision.

The Principal gave nine lectures a week on the following subjects: The Historical Books of the Old Testament, Christian Evidences and Non-Christian Religions, Church History, The Life of Christ and Studies in the Parables.

Special classes were conducted each week by Mr. J. I. Blyer in Vocal Music, and by Rev. C. E. Luce in New Testament Greek.

The College is again indebted to Dr. W. H. Howitt for his helpful course of Medical Lectures for intending Missionaries.

In the middle of the Fall term two weeks were devoted to special work by Rev. F. E. Marsh, of Bristol, Eng. Mr. Marsh gave a series of lectures each morning to the students on Principles and Methods of Bible Study, and a series of public lectures each evening on the Atonement.

The Examinations held upon the regular work of the session have on the whole been very satisfactory. In the Fall term there was evidence that the studies of the students had been somewhat disturbed on account of the increased importance attached to our Practical Department, and that time was being given to outside work which should have been devoted to private study. After the New Year, the attention of the class was drawn to this matter, and, without impairing the efficiency of their Practical Work, the students gave such diligent attention to their studies that the class had a very high average on the final examinations of the session. The members of the faculty are at one in this—that the efficiency of the Bible College depends primarily on the thoroughness of its course of instruction, and that the value of its training to the student depends most of all on the diligence with which he improves the opportunities of the classroom.

III. The Practical Work.

The Evangelistic Band was thoroughly organized at the beginning of the session, and has had a year of marked blessing. The students were divided into groups for the conduct of Gospel meetings, cottage prayer-meetings, factory meetings, hospital visitation, and prison work. They carried on weekly services throughout the session at Yonge St. Mission, Annette St. Mission, and the Christie Brown Factory. They also reached out beyond the city and on several occasions engaged in evangelistic work in other places. In this way visits were made to Weston, Woodbridge, Humber Summit, Dixie and Hamilton.

In all, 161 services were held by them during the six working months of the session, an average of seven each week. As a result of their organized efforts and their personal work over 400 persons have professed conversion. As far as possible, the names and addresses of these persons were secured, and by this means about 300 names were sent in to the ministers or laymen in charge of the work where the students were engaged.

We do not believe that statistics are a true criterion of Christian work, but they are the only means we have of representing it. And these facts and figures are deeply significant. They not only show that the students are learning to do the work of the Lord by actually doing it, but they also indicate that an amount of spiritual and evangelistic energy is going out continually from the Toronto Bible College that is of the greatest value to the Christian forces of this city.

IV. The Missionary Interest.

The Missionary Society this session has kept up the good record of the past by its regular weekly meeting, its early morning prayer meeting, its mission study classes, and by carrying on correspondence with former students now on the foreign field. Twenty-five missionaries from abroad and missionary leaders at home addressed the students on different occasions through the session. Eight mission study classes were conducted with an enrollment of 67 students. The sum of one hundred dollars was contributed by the Missionary Society for foreign work. Out of the 86 students of the Day Class, 34 intend to devote their lives to work in the foreign missionary field. The Bible College has always been marked by the depth and intensity of its Missionary spirit, and that spirit is as strong to-day as it has ever been.

All the work of the session—the class work, the practical work, the missionary work—has been carried on in the same spirit of prayer and devotion that has characterized the Institution from the beginning. All we do is begun, continued and ended in prayer. In summing up his impression of his three months' association with and participation in the life of the College, Mr. Roadhouse writes as follows: "The deep prayer spirit that prevails dominates the school life and all its services. It is most jealously guarded, and nothing is permitted to interfere with the gatherings for daily prayer. I believe this atmosphere is stronger now than a dozen years ago, during my own student period."

With this atmosphere the students are surrounded as soon as they enter College. Under its daily influence motives are purified, purposes are formed and lives are changed. Among the many ministries carried on by the Bible College there is none more important than this silent and steady influence upon the spiritual life and character of the students who come within its walls. The nature and results of this feature of our work cannot be represented in a report. They must be seen and felt in order to be known.

V. Conclusion.

This review of the past session gives occasion for devout thanksgiving to God. Notwithstanding the great loss suffered last year, the work has advanced without any interruption, and we are now able to report greater progress and brighter prospects than at any time in the past. The College preserves the spirit and aims of Dr. Harris and Dr. Stewart. The number of its students continues to increase, so that we are already beginning to feel that our building is too small. It is served by a staff of instructors, belonging to five denominations, who represent both high scholarship and consecration. Its course of instruction and training is proving its efficiency. Testimonies to the value of its work from former students who are pursuing a further course of study, or are engaged in active work, are being received again and again. One of last year's class, now in a theological seminary in Chicago, says: "I only wish every man could take a year at least in the Bible College before coming here. I value your work in Toronto more since coming here than ever before." Another writes from a mission field in Western Canada: "I find the teaching I received in the Bible College is just what the people want."

What the Bible College needs now most of all is to have its Mission understood. It occupies a place of its own in the Christian life of Canada. The Theological Colleges are doing their own noble work in training men for the ministry. But they alone cannot meet the need of the Church in its present-day conflict with the forces of evil in the world. Next to the need for calling out and training larger numbers of devoted men for the Christian ministry is the need for raising up throughout all the churches a body of laymen and laywomen trained in the knowledge and use of the English Bible and in the practice of personal work and prayer. It is for this the Toronto Bible College stands, and in helping to accomplish this object it is receiving the manifest sanction of the Divine blessing. Depending for its support upon no denominational connection, but the handmaid of all the denominations, it confidently appeals to the Christian men and women in all the churches who believe that this work is of God, and will help to hasten the kingdom of our common Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

REPORT OF SECRETARY.

The 19th Annual Report of the Toronto Bible College gives much cause for deep gratitude to God for His unflinching goodness to us throughout the past year. The work of the College has been carried on to completion without any interruption through illness or absence of any member of the faculty, and, as noted by the Principal, the results of our work, both in attendance of students and actual work accomplished, exceed that of any previous year. While we value the importance of increasing numbers attending the College, we lay greater stress on the deep spirit of earnest devotion pervading all our work. The prayer life of the student body is a marked feature of our institution, and, because of that fact, we are held closely together in the "Unity of the Spirit," though representing twelve different denominations. The position we occupy as an Interdenominational College has many advantages, but chiefly this: that we stand as an Educational Clearing House for all the churches, where the young people from any communion may come and study the Word of God side by side with those whose denominational training has given them a different point of view.

Our Purpose.

It is our consistent purpose to so train our students that they will respect each other's convictions and go back to their several church homes truer and more loyal to them than when they came to us. We have many expressions of the value of this experience from our students who go out into the newer parts of our country, where they have to labor in the midst of those who belong to so many different denominations, and are able to approach all of them in the spirit of Christian brotherhood.

Our building continues to be the centre of a large number of Interdenominational activities. During the year, meetings were held under the auspices of the Zenana Medical Mission, Toronto Mission to the Jews, Shanty Men's Mission, Mission to the Lepers, Dr. Barnardo's Homes, "Bible League," Christian and Missionary Alliance, the Sudan Interior Mission, and the Deaf Mutes' Society.

There is one possible drawback to this Interdenominational position, namely, that we lack the Denominational claim on any branch of the Church for our support. At the present time, when all the churches are taxed to the utmost through appeals for special work, we must look to those who believe in the position we occupy and the purpose for which we stand, to make increasing provision for our continuance.

Finances.

The finances, as will be shown by our Treasurer, give cause for encouragement, but there is yet much to accomplish along this line.

During the year we made a strong effort to secure twenty subscriptions of $200.00 each, but were not wholly successful. In addition to this, several thousand letters were sent out to those we felt would be interested to share our work, asking for a sustaining membership of $5.00 a year. To this appeal we had many kind and practical replies.

Through the year several bequests have come to us. One from the Estate of the late Mr. J. D. Nasmith, $5,000, secured by 7 per cent. preferred stock in the Nasmith Co., the interest to be paid quarterly. A second, from the Estate of the late Dr. Stewart, amounting to $2,050, which amount has been paid over to the Treasurer, and is now invested. A third, from the late Mr. McLaulin, of Toronto, who left us an interest in some real estate in the City of Detroit. As this will be being contested by some members of his family, the matter is in litigation.

Board Meetings.

The Board of Incorporation met three times during the year and considered the matters referred to it by the last Annual Meeting. They decided that outside organizations using the building would be required to contribute $10.00 a day to cover the expense of heating and lighting and janitor's service.

It was agreed that we continue to issue the Recorder, while using all other means of making our work known.

They accepted the resignation of Rev. Andrew Imrie at the close of the winter term, owing to his inability to serve the College and meet the growing demands of his congregation.

In his place, Rev. W. F. Roadhouse was appointed a member of the faculty to have charge of the Practical Work Department for one year, from Feb. 1st, 1913, at a salary of $100 a month. This appointment was made possible through the kindness of Hon. S. H. Blake, who is providing the salary for that period.

There were four students engaged by the Upper Canada Bible Society to do colportage work during the afternoons of the winter, and have commended themselves by faithful and successful labor.

Mrs. Blake made us a gift of a complete set of Mission Study Text-books for the Library, which we greatly needed.

We secured an order-in-council from the Provincial Government to change our name to that of the Toronto Bible College.

Mr. T. S. Cole was appointed to represent the Council on the Board of In. for a period of three years.

Rev. H. M. Parsons, D.D.

The College lost a true and valued friend in the death of the late Rev. H. M. Parsons, D.D., who passed away at his home in Toronto on January 14th, 1913. He was a loyal exponent of the Scriptures as the "Word of God," and was in the closest fellowship with the work of the Bible College from its organization. He took a deep personal interest in the students and attended many of their meetings. His presence and advice on our Council was greatly valued, and we are sensible of a great loss through his death. A suitable resolution of sympathy was sent his family from the Board. We are indebted to Mrs. Parsons for a number of valuable books from the library of her late husband.

The question of securing a President was carefully considered, but up to the present no appointment seemed possible.

Special Meeting with the Students.

A special meeting of the Board for Conference with the Student Body was held on February 7th, when a most interesting and valuable evening was spent together. The effect of that meeting left a very deep impression on all present.

Reports from several of our former students who have gone on to further study in preparation for the ministry, show that the instruction they received at the Bible College has prepared them to take a high rank in the several theological colleges they are now attending.

It will be necessary for the Board and Council to prepare for an increased expenditure in the future. The property needs attention in a number of minor matters. We need to invest more in advertising in order that the advantages we offer may be enjoyed by an increasing number of students. We need a library fund for current literature, as well as new publications of reference.

It is hoped the members of the Council will co-operate more actively than ever during the coming year with the Board and Faculty in securing the practical co-operation of a larger number of those who appreciate what this Institution stands for, and continue to make it possible for us to give the increasing number of young men and women who come to us the training in the Word of God and how to win men to Christ, which is the purpose and aim of our College.

NOTES.

Mr. Harry W. Bower and Miss Adeline Sharpe were married on April 30th.

Mr. Mervin Ganton has been appointed by the South American Evangelical Union to mission work in Peru. He leaves for his field during the summer, and will have charge of an industrial farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams are under appointment to South Africa, where they will labor under the South African General Mission. They do not sail till next spring. In the meantime they are engaged in Home Mission work at Delhi, Sask., under the Presbyterian Home Mission Board.

Several other students are laboring in mission fields this summer. Mr. Clinton Criswell and Mr. Wm. B. McGregor are in Northern Ontario, under the Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Glen Wardell is at Monteville, Ont., under the Home Mission Board of the Baptist Churches, and Mr. Levi Atkinson is in Saskatchewan, under the Mission Board of the Methodist Church.

Mr. R. Munro expects to sail for Africa shortly, and Miss Steele will be returning to China in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Storms have arrived on their field in Turkey in Asia.

Mr. E. E. Preston and Mr. J. Jaffray of the class of 1910, graduated last month, with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from the Presbyterian Seminary at Louisville, Ky. Mr. Jaffray was awarded the E. L. Warren prize for progress in preaching and special fidelity in study, the only prize offered to the graduating class. Mr. Preston made the highest grades in all subjects, except Hebrew. At the alumni banquet on the closing day, one of the professors in his speech said, "the two Canadians have shown a more consistently high grade of excellence in their studies than any other students we have ever had."

Mr. and Mrs. Bower, together with Mr. Stephen Dunk and Miss Lottie Campbell, are carrying on pioneer city mission work among the homes of the people in one of the most destitute parts of Toronto.

Miss Helen Millar and Miss Martha McDonald, are engaged this summer in social service in Toronto. Miss Millar is working in connection with Evangel Hall on Queen St. West, and Miss McDonald is assistant superintendent of one of the Presbyterian Rescue Homes.

Mr. Oswald Smith, of the class of 1912, has completed his first year at McCormick Seminary, Chicago. He will be preaching during the summer in the Southern States.

Miss Jennie Dale, of the class of 1907, has been married to Mr. Jas. Wardrope Smith, and is living at Aberfoyle, Ont.

Messrs. Ivor Pritchard, H. S. Saunders, A. A. Wilson and C. J. White are doing colportage work for the Bible Society among the foreigners of Toronto.

JOSEPH N. SHENSTONE, Treas.

FINANCES.

A new year of work calls for new supplies to make it possible. We are counting on our friends to have this in mind and give us the joy of ministering to the students, who under many financial difficulties are working their way through our course of instruction. Gifts may be addressed to the Treasurer Toronto Bible College, 110 College St., Toronto, and will be duly acknowledged.

The twentieth session of the Toronto Bible College will commence on Tuesday, Sept. 16th, 1913.
