Editorial

The age in which we live has been made intensely exciting and awesome by the explosively expanding frontiers of knowledge and its implications.

In the past few decades, the Christian world has not exercised leadership in the areas of knowledge and intellectual experience. However, in the past few years there has been a resurgence of evangelical Biblical scholarship, and growing interest in all areas of life.

Good leadership, has and always will be a result of training in the specific field in which one is a leader. The basis of our training is be firm both in faith and reason. It must be firm in faith because faith is the only way well pleasing to God by which successful spiritual life has been lived in the past. It must be firm in reason because God has given to man reasonable faculties by which he might discover His creation.

By the moral and mental endowment that man has received from his Creator, provision has been made for the development of specific gifts and interests.

London College is aiming to provide the external facilities to promote these gifts in various fields of education.

It is firm conviction that it will only be by filling our pulpits with well educated and spiritual pastors who are able to stand against the wiles of the Devil, subtle as they are, that we will be in any position to claim global conquest for Christ. Missionaries, educators and others must be ready always to give an answer to any man (laymen, students, professional or businessmen) who inquires of them a reason of the hope that is in them. This will be the Christian's only hope for world evangelization in this day and generation.

As we expand our frontiers of knowledge and experience to meet the challenge of the world, let us join hands in positively presenting our Lord as the basis and hope of all peoples.

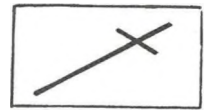

"World Evangelization Through Trained Leadership" aptly describes our program.

Dedication

During the past six years as an English teacher, Miss Winslow's efforts to instill in her students a love for English have been rewarding. We shall always appreciate not only the wisdom she has imparted, but her words of encouragement as well. Her help as yearbook advisor for four years has been invaluable.

The desire to see her students do well compels Miss Winslow to pray for each one individually. Even though she has shown dignity as a teacher, we have also appreciated her good sportsmanship in the various events at school.

Miss Winslow's faithfulness to our school, to each one of us, and above all to God, will continue to be an encouragement.

Because of all these things, we want to earnestly dedicate this book to you, Miss Winslow.

President's Message

Dear Young Friends,

"Send forth thy light," reads the motto below our crest. It is a prayer of the psalmist, which we have made our prayer. In so doing, we have offered ourselves and our school to God as conveyors of His light, remembering that God uses men as His light bearers. "God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ" (2 Cor. 4:6). His light has penetrated our darkness, and it is now our responsibility to carry that light, the light of the glorious Gospel, where darkness still prevails.

To those of you who will soon be leaving us, having finished your course here, we say Godspeed. May He enable you to finish your greater course and receive the "crown of righteousness." To those who plan to return we say, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly," that you may be workmen unashamed, both now and at His appearing.

For all of us I pray that we may allow God's fire to consume the dross, that the light may shine through.

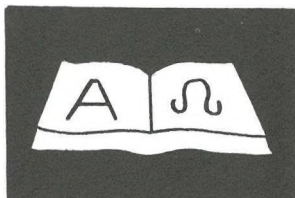

In the bonds of Christ,

J. C. Macaulay

Our New Crest

The crest of London College of Bible and Missions was adopted by the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors on December 18, 1962.

Against a white field, the colours of the school, delphinium blue and gold, are artistically blended.

The upper left section of the shield carries the open Bible, with the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. The Bible is the basic textbook of our College. The Greek letters constitute one of the titles of Christ, the eternal Word.

The torch in the upper right section of the shield denotes learning. We believe that creation is "God's other book", and the pursuit of knowledge must be carried on in this field as well as in the field of revelation.

The cross upon the globe reminds us of our mission to proclaim the Gospel of Christ to the whole world.

Surmounting the shield is the crown. The crucified Christ is also the crowned Christ, and those who bear the cross after Him will be rewarded with the crown of life.

The motto, taken from Psalm 43:3, means "Send out thy light". Only in His light can we see light.

Students' Council

President: Bruce Vincent

Located at the center of student life at London College is a group of the busiest students on campus, the Students' Council. This body which represents each major student organization, is the hub of student activity.

Students' Council exists to co-ordinate all student organization and activities, thus providing valuable experience in leadership training within a responsible governing body.

By suggesting recommendations to the faculty in the area of student life which may be of benefit to the College, and by communicating faculty decisions and policies to the students, the Council acts as an intermediary between faculty and students.

In seeking to maintain a truly Christian perspective, the Council seeks to influence the spiritual progress of the student body through various organizations. This calls for a group of students who are dedicated to "being conformed to the image of His Son," Jesus Christ, and who by positive and purposeful programming seek to transmit this vision to the students.

Student Mission Projects

In September 1962, the student body realized the accomplishment of their mission project by the arrival of Webster Kasonso from Northern Rhodesia, for whom they provided passage money.

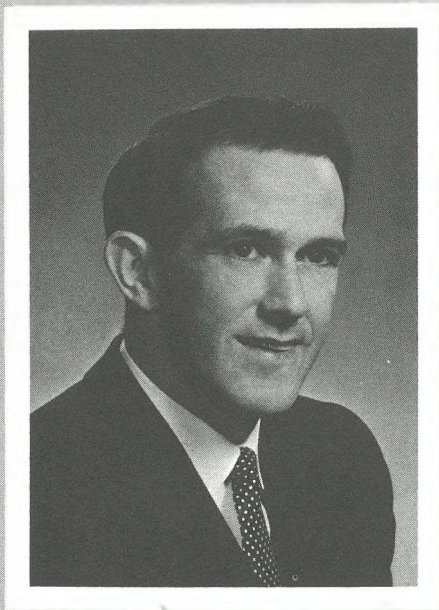

For this year, 1963-'64, the S. M. F. has a two-fold project; to pay for the cost of a Dial-a-message Telephone ministry in Moncton, New Brunswick, and to provide a much needed projector for Emmanouel Smpraos, '59, in Greece.

The goal of $1,000 was reached by May 1963 for the providing of a Bookmobile for literature distribution to the churches in Tokyo. Here, Thelma Clarke, '47, is pictured with Mr. Aiki, the driver.

S.M.F. Speaks

As Bible College students, our goal is to have God's calling in our lives--to do God's will. There is, however, always a temptation to take the short cut in achieving this goal.

One cannot do what God wants him to do without first being what God wants him to be. In other words being comes before doing.

In Romans 8:29 we discover what God's will for our life is--"to be conformed to the image of His Son."

An atmosphere conducive to Christian growth is produced as we uphold our missionaries in prayer and worship our Lord with offerings, giving attention to our own spiritual condition so that we might be clean vessels ready and fitted for the Master's use to do what He wants us to do.

Arden Mertz,
President.

My people think that a white man subscribes only to something lucrative. This assertion can be refuted easily. Those who gave to bring me here believed the Word of God, "But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal." (Matt. 6:20) They believed, too, that the heavenly bank gives the biggest interest.

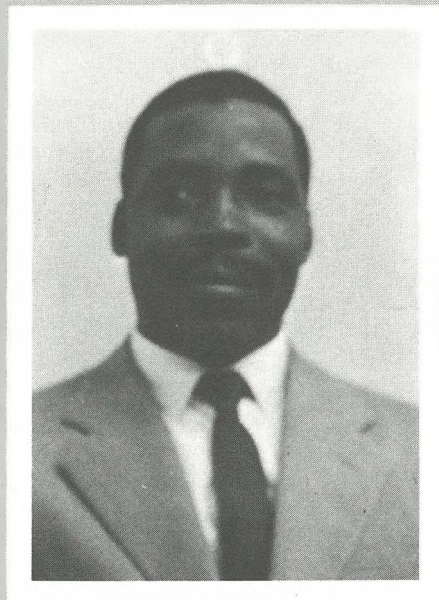

As soon as I arrived at school I entered a sphere of progressive friendliness, helpfulness, and consideration.

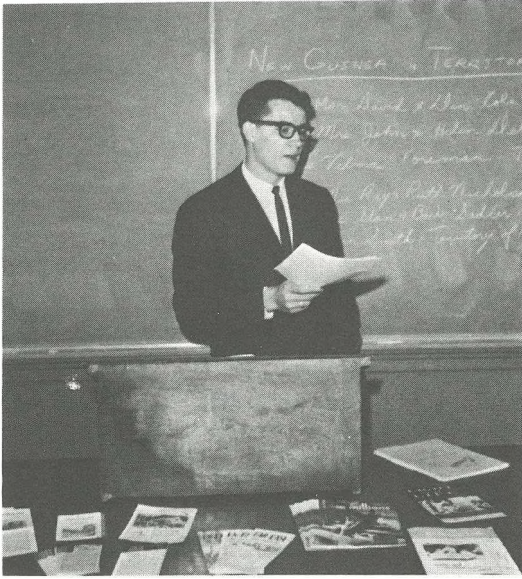

The sight of snow thrilled me. The summer heat with its humidity irritated me. Studies, especially in the first semester, nearly defeated me. A good job and a Christian home crowned my summer holiday.

As I participated in the S. M. F. projects, I can experience the same joy as those who brought me here.

Although I like Canada, I am looking forward to the time when I am reunited with my good wife and family and am serving the Lord among my own people.

Sam Kasonso.

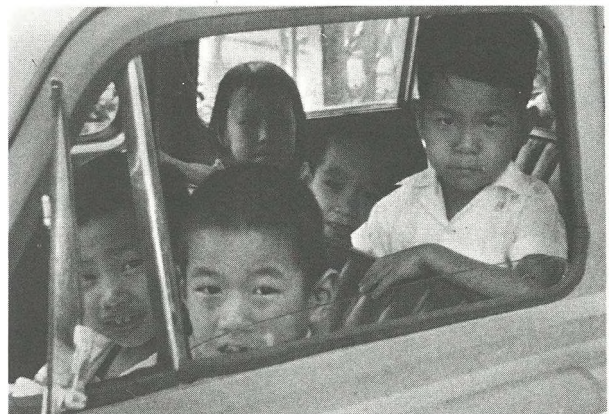

S.M.F. Outreach

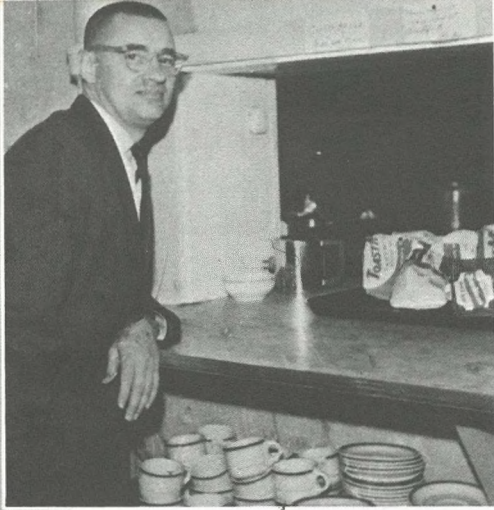

Marvin Warman, the prayer leader for Far Eastern Asia, leads a group of students in praying for alumni in the fields represented by this group. Miss Winifred Price, '49, working in Japan is but one of many graduates prayed for by the students.

Similar groups of students pray for graduates in other regions of the world in which they are interested.

Note the goat..... ee!!

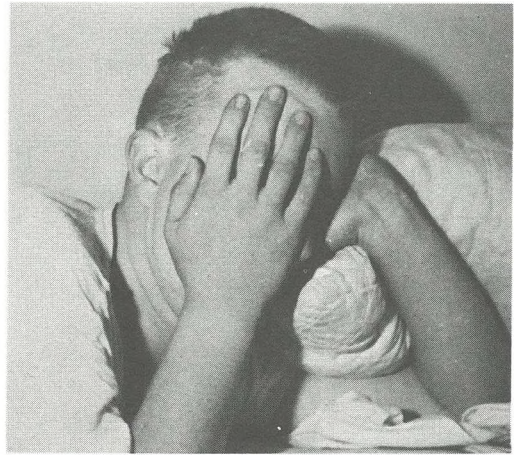

"Man, I had it!"

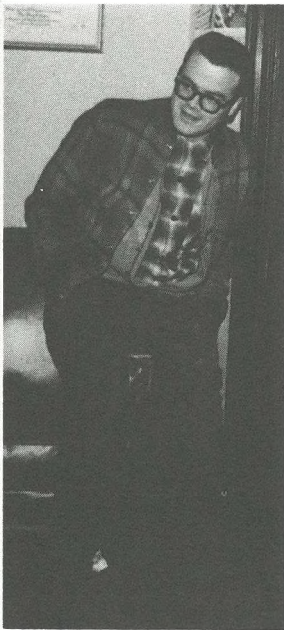

He-brew-ed over it!

Which... did you say?

You're peeking!

Lean to Bill!

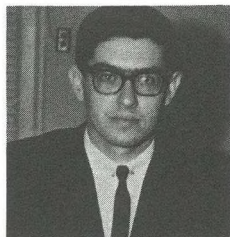

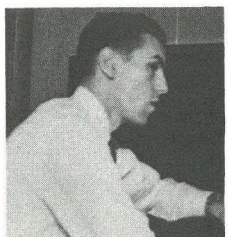

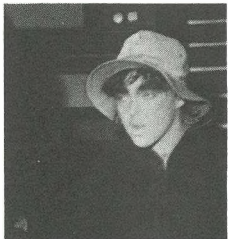

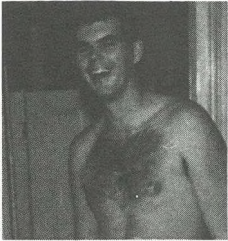

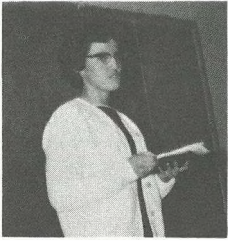

I love---to keep score!

Purely social!

The LATIN AMERICA MISSION contributes to the effective evangelization of the entire continent "by all means" in co-operation with other evangelical agencies, according to sound Scriptural principles of missionary work. To this end it carries on both local and international ministries in medicine, literature, education, social service, radio and direct evangelism, as well as sponsoring church work in Costa Rica and Colombia.

Rev. William L. Thompson, the Canadian Secretary of the Mission, is available for meetings and may be contacted at the above postal address in Toronto.

Class of '64
London College of Bible and Missions
London, Ontario

Dear Graduates:

The apostle exhorted Timothy to commit the things he had learned to "faithful men who shall be able to teach others also." The three nouns in the name of our College remind us that -

First, it is a College, a place of learning. Education is a "must" these days and we are happy to have had you here where you have learned much to fit you for your future career.

Second, it is a College of the Bible. "This collection of books written by kings and fishermen, shepherds and priests, covering two milleniums, manifests great variety in style and form. Legal code, history, drama, poetry and letter are presented to us, now in great impressive utterances, now in cold logic or orderly didacticism, but through it all the anointed eye sees Christ. He is the great and unifying theme of the Bible."

Intellectual acquaintance with the Bible, or even with methods of Christian work, may leave the heart cold. The Lord Jesus expounded in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself; He was both subject and teacher. Result, the disciples' eyes were opened and their hearts burned.

Lastly, London College is a College of Bible and Missions. When we are taken up with Christ, His own command to carry the good news to every creature will find a ready obedience in our hearts.

It is our prayer that your remaining days at the College may be crowned with blessing to yourself and then to others.

On behalf of the Board,

M. L. Steinmann, Chairman

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN?

God has a special place for you in His plan for world evangelism. To find it means a life of joyous enrichment. To miss it can mean an unsatisfied life, despite outward success.

Where do you fit in? Do you know?

If not, let us help you. May we send you our helpful booklet WHO SHOULD GO? and literature covering all phases of missionary work? We will be happy to counsel you concerning the possibility of service on our fields; and pray with you for guidance. We invite you to write us.

Life Insurance for all Protestant Ministers,
Missionaries and Students of Theology

The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund has enjoyed the distinction of selling life insurance at the LOWEST NET COST
to policyholders for many years.

Just Remember . . .

NEW LOW RATES MAKE NEW WARM FRIENDS!

The PMF now announces

NEW still LOWER RATES

The only safe way to compare rates and returns in life insurance is to "stay with" the guarantees—

- (1) The annual premium rate is guaranteed;
- (2) The Face Amount of the policy—the death claim figure—is guaranteed;
- (3) The Guaranteed Cash Values at the fifth, tenth, twentieth, etc. year points, and at age sixty-five—to you alive—these also are guaranteed.

You cannot miss — you are assured when you insure with

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS' FUND

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead
at His appearing and His Kingdom;

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.
