Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven; To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Evermore His praises sing.

Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless;

Alleluia, alleluia,
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Fatherlike, He tends and spares us, Well, our feeble frame He knows;
In His Hands, He gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes;

Alleluia, alleluia,
Widely as His mercy flows.

Frail as summer's flower we flourish; Blows the wind and it is gone;
But, while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on.

Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise the high eternal One.

Angels, help us to adore Him; Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon bow down before Him; Dwellers all in time and space.

Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise with us the God of grace.

Welcome

Congregational HymnStir Your Church, O God, Our Father

Stir your church, O God, our Father, move throughout its life today;
Cultivate a sense of mission in our hearts and minds, we pray.
Help us to renew commitment to a way of ministry
Which interprets for our culture how your truth can make us free.

Make your church a living witness to the power of its Lord;
Send us to the world around us with your Spirit and your Word:
To the inner city turmoil, to affluent suburbs too
To all those who need your message, send us forth to tell of you.

Give to us a social conscience which enables us to see
That all folk are your creation and that they have dignity.
Let us feel, with real compassion, needs of body, mind, and soul;
For these needs may we provide your ministry which makes them whole.

Challenge us, O God, our Father, to the tasks which must be done
For your church to find fulfillment in the way taught by your Son.
With awareness of our purpose, with commitment to your call,
May we help prepare the time when Christ will reign as Lord of all.

Lead On, O King Eternal

Lead on, O King Eternal. The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home:
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper The sweet amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing, Or roll of stirring drums;
With deeds of love and mercy The heav'nly Kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal. We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us; We journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might.

Reception to follow.

Distinguished Alumni 2002

Tyndale College

K. Ruth Wallace (BTh), 1993

Ruth Wallace is currently the Dean of Students at The King's University College in Edmonton, Alberta. Previously she served as the Student Development Counsellor at King's and as the Dean of Students at Bethany Bible Institute in Saskatchewan. She graduated from Tyndale College in 1993 with a Bachelor of Theology, and earned the Phi Alpha Mu award. She continued in her studies to earn a Master of Arts in Worldview Studies from Toronto's Institute for Christian Studies, a Master of Education from Azusa Pacific University in California, and is in the process of completing her Doctor of Ministry at Colgate Rochester Divinity School. Ruth is a member of various organizations and associations, including the Canadian Association of Christians in Student Development (past president), the Canadian Association of College and University Student Services, and the Student Affairs and Services Association. She has also served as a member of the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) Women's Concerns Committee and the MCC Peace and Social Concerns Committee.

Tyndale Seminary

Anne E. Woolger (MTS), 1988

Anne Woolger is the founder and current director of Matthew House, a city-run shelter for refugees in Toronto. Since opening as a permanent home in August 1998, Matthew House has provided shelter and assistance for more than 200 refugees from over 40 countries. In addition to earning a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in History (Queen's) and a Master of Theological Studies (Tyndale), she received a Certificate in International Human Rights Law in 1994 from the International Institute of Human Rights, Strasbourg, France. Anne has represented Canadian church coalitions at Human Rights forums both in Ottawa and at the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in Geneva. She has served on various local and national refugee boards including Toronto Refugee Affairs Council Detention Sub Committee and Canadian Baptist Ministries and the Canadian Council of Churches National Refugee Committees. Anne has also served on a consultative committee with Canada Immigration (Ottawa) regarding the private sponsorship of refugees and was involved in overseeing the Kosovar refugee resettlement program in the spring of 1999. Recently she was appointed by the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada (EFC) to lead their Refugee Task Group. She is a regular guest speaker at missions conferences and churches, educating the public about the local and worldwide plight of refugees and encouraging Christians to reach out to those in need.

Honourary Doctorate

The Rev. David C. Mainse

The Rev. David Mainse was born in Campbell's Bay, Quebec. He began his work in television in 1962 with a weekly edition called Crossroads. In 1977 he began 100 Huntley Street, Canada's first daily live Christian television program which has featured more than 12,000 guests on over 6,400 episodes, with a weekly audience averaging one million Canadian viewers. The program also offers a 24-hour prayer line service and refers people to social care agencies and churches across Canada. In 1982 Rev. Mainse established the Emergency Response and Development Fund (ERDF) which has disbursed over $15 million to humanitarian and long-term sustainable development projects worldwide. Through Crossroads Christian Communications the Geoffrey R. Conway/Crossroads School of Broadcasting and the Circle Square Ranch camp ministry have been established. In 1998 the Canadian Radio and Television Commission granted Rev. Mainse a license to operate the Crossroads Television System (CTS) where the Rev. Mainse portrays a credible voice for Canadian Christians and promotes an open and respectful dialogue of faith among citizens. Through his work and the endeavors of the Crossroads Family of Ministries, he seeks to fulfill the Great Commission, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel." David and his wife Norma-Jean have four children and sixteen grandchildren.
