

Dr. Stephanie Ling appointed Chancellor of Tyndale

For Immediate Release

Thursday, February 2, 2012 —

(Toronto) Tyndale University College & Seminary is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Stephanie J. Ling to the position of Chancellor. As Chancellor, Dr. Ling will inspire and celebrate success in Tyndale and serve as a bridge between Tyndale and the community by bringing , both external and internal communities together.

Dr. Ling was born and raised in Victoria, British Columbia where she attained a B.Ed. degree at the University of Victoria. She went on to earn an Honours B.A. in English and a Master of Education at York University and, in 2008, she attained her doctorate in Educational Administration & Leadership from the University of Toronto. She has taught and held leadership positions at several schools most recently being the co-founder and principal of the Children's Primary Centre and Cornerstone Montessori Prep Schools at both the Toronto and Don Mills Campuses. Dr. Ling has served as Chair of the Board of Governors for Knox College at the University of Toronto, and is currently a member of Senate at York University as well as serving on the Board of TST (Toronto Schools of Theology).

"Dr. Stephanie Ling brings to the role of Chancellor a unique blend of commitment to her Christian faith and credibility from years of educational efforts in the community," says Tyndale President, Dr. Gary Nelson, "Dr. Ling is a remarkable educator and her involvement in the community through participation on boards and committees around the city has made her an amazing bridge builder. She reflects the qualities and character that we desire to see in our students as they graduate and move out into their respective places of vocation."

Dr. Ling begins her tenure at Tyndale on April 3, 2012.

© 2025 Tyndale University — all rights reserved · Privacy Policy · Accessibility · Website Feedback · Marketing & Communications

Tyndale's public reports, materials and advertising are produced in a thorough, accurate and truthful manner.